MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

FOSTER CARE MONTH

2007

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, according to the North Carolina Department of Health and Human services, there are approximately 11,309 children of all ages in the North Carolina foster care system right now; and

WHEREAS, it is the goal of the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services to provide these children with safe, stable, and nurturing family environments; and

WHEREAS, everyday, citizens choose to become foster parents and open their homes, hearts, and lives to these children; and

WHEREAS, according to the North Carolina Division of Social Services, there were 1,400 children adopted from foster care last fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, foster parents frequently adopt their foster children, which results in a continual need for more foster families; and

WHEREAS, numerous individuals, communities, and public and private organizations are committed to efforts to ensure children's safety, well-being, and permanence;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2007, as "FOSTER CARE MONTH" in North Carolina. I commend this observance to our citizens as an opportunity to celebrate the contributions of foster parents and child welfare professionals and to urge all citizens to volunteer their time, energy, and talents on behalf of children in foster care. I further encourage the community, businesses, faith-based organizations, and families to participate in efforts to recruit and support foster families in North Carolina.
